

Note: Handouts are meant as pointers and are not to be considered substitutes for attendance. The bulk of the material we will be covering throughout the semester comes from in-class analysis and discussion of the selected readings which can be found in the handouts.

12th Sep: Introduction, Morphological typology; Concatenation and Non-concatenation. Handout 1

19th Sep: Word formation in a concatenative morphology. Handout 2

26th Sep: Word formation in a non-concatenative morphology. Handout 2

3rd Oct: Inflection and derivation in a concatenative morphology. Handout 3

10th Oct: Inflection and derivation in a non-concatenative morphology. Handout 3

17th Oct: Midterm

24th Oct: Prefixation and Suffixation between the two types. Handout 3

31st Oct: Fall break

7th Nov: Process productivity in a concatenative system. Handout 4

14th Nov: Template productivity in a non-concatenative system. Handout 4

21st Nov: Concatenation in a non-concatenative framework. Handout 5

28th Nov: Non-concatenation in different (concatenative) languages. Handout 5

5th Dec: The degree of concatenation in different languages. Handout 6

12th Dec – Final.