Overview 6

I I showed the painting to an expert who it at about £500. A costed B estimated C assigned D valued 2 I' di like to buy that glassy saye you have in the window — the one with the roses — on the side. A inscribed B tatrooed C designed D etched 3 According to the opinion polls, over 20% of voters in the — General Election have yet to make up their minds. A forthcoming B future C impending D incumbent 4 He's a fairly pleasant child but he has a strong — of stubborness when he doesn't get his own way. A trait B streak C character D mark 5 The room feels very — now that we're having to store all my bother's furniture. A cramped B pressed C filled D crowded 6 On reflection, the reviewer realized that he had been — unfair in his harsh criticism of the play. A somewhat B moreover C anywhere D whatever 7 The two children tried as hard as they could to — a reconcilitation between their parents. A bring about B bring up C bring in D bring together 8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very — of strangers. A terrified B frightened C petrified D horrified 9 By the time he had finished work and returned home, he was absolutely — A exhausted B tired C weary D weak 10 That was one of the best films t have ever seen —it was — magnificent. A very B fairly C quite D extremely his parents as a child. A fully B seriously C completely D bitterly 11 All through his life he remained — resentful of the way he had been a bandoned by his parents as a child. B for C at D together D fully 11 The manager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a success. A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was — aware of the risk. A mest B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered — his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D togenuine 4 torriting For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as simitar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given i	vocabulary	(Choose the word which I	est.	completes each senter	nce.
the side. A inscribed B tattooed C designed D etched 3 According to the opinion polls, over 20% of voters in the		1	I showed the painting A costed	to a	un expert who	i	t at about £500. assigned	Ĺ) valued
3 According to the opinion polls, over 20% of voters in the		2	the side.			vindo	w – the one with the r	ose	s on
A forthcoming B future C impending D incumbent 4 He's a fairly pleasant child but he has a strong of stubborness when he doesn't get his own way. A trait B streak C character D mark 5 The room feels very on that we're having to store all my brother's furniture. A cramped B pressed C filled D crowded 6 On reflection, the reviewer realized that he had been of the play. A somewhat B moreover C anywhere D whatever 7 The two children tried as hard as they could to one a reconciliation between their parents. A bring about B bring up C bring in D bring together 8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very of strangers. A terrified B frightened C petrified D horrified 9 By the time he had finished work and returned home, he was absolutely A exhausted B tired C weary D weak 10 That was one of the best films I have ever seen—it was magnificent. A very B fairly C quire D extremely 11 All through his life he remained resemblud of the way he had been abandoned by his parents as a child. A fully B seriously C completely D bitterly 12 The munager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a success. A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the entire house was flooded. A by B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. FOINTLESS.			A inscribed	: B	tattooed	C	designed	D	etched
4 He's a fairly pleasant child but he has a strong of stubborness when he doesn't get his own way. A trait B streak C character D mark 5 The room feels very	and the second s		Vel to make un their n	aind
5 The room feels very		4	He's a fairly pleasant his own way.	chile	d but he has a strong	· · ·	of stubborness v
6 On reflection, the reviewer realized that he had been	•	_
A somewhat B moreover C anywhere D whatever 7 The two children tried as hard as they could to a reconciliation between their parents. A bring about B bring up C bring in D bring together 8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very of strangers. A terrified B frightened C petrified D horrified 9 By the time he had finished work and returned home, he was absolutely			A cramped	В	pressed	C	filled	D	crowded
7 The two children tried as hard as they could to a reconciliation between their parents. A bring about B bring up C bring in D bring together 8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very of strangers. A terrified B frightened C petrified D horrified 9 By the time he had finished work and returned home, he was absolutely at exhausted B tired C weary D weak 10 That was one of the best films I have ever seen – it was magnificent. A very B fairly C quite D extremely 11 All through his life he remained mesentful of the way he had been abandoned by his parents as a child. A fully B seriously C completely D bitterly 12 The manager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a success. A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the mitter house was flooded. A by B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.		6	or the play.
A bring about B bring up C bring in D bring together 8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very		~					-
8 Anna is a very nervous child and she's very	,	7	parents.						•
9 By the time he had finished work and returned home, he was absolutely A exhausted B tired C weary D weak 10 That was one of the best films I have ever seen – it was		Q	~				-	D	bring together
That was one of the best films I have ever seen – it was			A terrified	В	frightened	C	petrified
A very B fairly C quite D extremely All through his life he remained resentful of the way he had been abandoned by his parents as a child. A fully B seriously C completely D bitterly 12 The manager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a success. A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the had been stolen. A first B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.			A exhausted	В	tired	C	weary	D	weak
A fully B seriously C completely D bitterly 12 The manager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a success. A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the had been stolen. A first B original C blueprint D genuine To each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.		10	That was one of the be A very	st fil B	lms I have ever seen - fairly	it w	as magnifi quite
12 The manager was very pleased with her last business trip, which had been a		11	his parents as a child.					n at	pandoned by
A whole B complete C full D high 13 He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the had been stolen. A first B original C blueprint D genuine Ewriting For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.	•		•		-		- ·		•
He decided to go ahead with the new business, although he was aware of the risk. A most B gravely C seriously D fully 14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the had been stolen. A first B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS		12	success.
14 On returning home, Peter discovered his horror that the pipes had burst and the entire house was flooded. A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the had been stolen. A first B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.		13
A by B of C at D to 15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the			A most	В	gravely	C	seriously	D	fully
15 The museum guards were shocked to find that the painting on the wall was a copy and the		14	entire nouse was moode	a.
A first B original C blueprint D genuine For each of the following sentences below, write a new sentence as similar as possible in meaning to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS. 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.		15	The museum guards we	re si	bocked to find that the
to the original sentence, but using the word given in capital letters. The word must not be altered in any way. 1 You'd be wasting your time trying to make him change his mind. POINTLESS			nad been sto	ien.
POINTLESS 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.	ewriting	10 11	ne originai senience, bu	entei t usi	nces below, write a nengence the word given in a	ew se capit	ntence as similar as po al letters. The word m	ossi ust i	ble in meaning not be altered
POINTLESS 2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.		1	You'd be wasting your t	time	trying to make him c	hanø	e his mind
2 Peter inherited a large sum of money from his uncle.
							******************	•••	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •

			ppointment to the fans.
4			cum through the roof.
	the state of the s			t. Systems a en la la
5	She earns money fro
	The state of the s	. •
6			expensive these days.	, * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *
	•
7			very capable person.	****************
8				*****************
			••••••
9
			·····
10
			•
,
c	ollocation patterns in th	with nouns and verb. ne Structure section.	s, and follow similar patterns In the following sentences, cl	to the intensifier and hoose the hest answer.
1	Mary's having a terri A dislikes	ble time at work bec B mistrusts	ause she absolutely C loathes	. her boss. D resents
. 2	It is just as well you of an absolute	lidn't put your mone . if you had. В еттог	ey in that company, because it C miscalculation
3				•
-	two other points you of	ought to consider.	wanting to leave, but I still the	ink there are one or
	A quite	B highly	C greatly	D terribly
4	When morning came, A disturbance	the scene of where t B damage	the bomb had fallen was one of C disruption	of utter
5	The news of his sister A utter	's death came as a(n B entire) shock to him, C extreme	D great
6	I quite Mo. A adore	zart, but on the whol B love	le I prefer Bach. C like	D idolize
7	After the crash, a num A great	ber of people were to	aken to hospital with C deep
8	For many years, my si	Sier regre	etted turning down the chance	_ to university. A bitterly	B highly	C entirely	D absolutely
9	If you managed to pass A utter	s your driving test, it B entire	would be an mira C extreme	cle.
10	The bank manager said	I that he	appreciated that we were havi	D absolute ng problems, but there was nothing he co A greatly	ould do to help. B fully	C utterly
	JJ		o unerry	D largely

collocations