

Sample sentences for tree-drawing practice

- (1) Mary suddenly appeared in Budapest.
- (2) Evidently the news scared him to death.
- (3) I would prefer for us to stay safe.
- (4) What will you hit them with?
- (5) People quickly become afraid that something might happen to them.
- (6) Who knows whether in September schools will reopen?
- (7) When Donald said this he immediately wrecked the conference.
- (8) Could you wake me up at dawn?
- (9) Politicians evidently must constantly worry about votes.
- (10) I most fervently hope that by this time you can effortlessly translate this sentence into a tree.